

NotaryAct.com
the Ultimate Notary Journal

Liz Adams

"There is a lot of value in this product. Not only does it provide "privacy" for previous entries, it is user friendly and offers portability without having to carry an actual book. This is a no brainer... GREAT PRODUCT. Happy to lend my support!"

Bio:

2008 NNA Notary of the Year

Liz Adams has been a notary for more than 35 years, both independently and within large organizations. Liz holds a degree in computer science. She is multi-lingual and a background screened certified notary of the NNA/NSA. Liz is also a mobile Florida Notary and a former NNA Ambassador. In her capacity as Ambassador, Liz performed workshops for "new" notaries to hone their skills. She provided a shadow program for the notaries to view how the loan closing process was performed and is active in trying to get legislation to pass a law requiring a mandatory journal for all notaries in Florida. Liz is a former NNA Certified Notary Public Instructor (CNPI) for Florida conducting seminars for the NNA when the NNA had live seminars. Liz was named "The 2008 National Notary of the Year" and received a thank you letter from President George W. Bush and local Florida dignitaries. Liz has kept busy in the notary industry by either performing seminars for new as well as seasoned notaries that just want to keep up with current events, she continues to conduct loan signings to keep her skills up to date and she also conducts private training in-house for attorney's/paralegals, etc. Liz has been sought out for her expertise in her field and most importantly for her values and integrity.
